TRAINING MANUALS AND CDS

Your family is just a few steps away from a miracle—and that miracle starts with you!

Listen to nationally known teachers Dr. Scott Turansky and Joanne Miller, RN, BSN as they unpack strategic routines of family life. Learn how to give day-to-day instructions in a way that builds cooperation and responsibility. Hear practical ideas for connecting with your kids emotionally so that their hearts will be soft and teachable.

These training manuals and CDs are designed to help you integrate key success principles into your family. Answer the questions in the lesson, look up the scriptures, reflect on the teaching, and watch yourself make significant changes in the ways you relate. When parents change, children change.

You'll love the difference.

For individual study and parent mentor programs.

Each 36-page booklet helps you integrate a heart-based approach into your parenting. Listen to the CD and work through the manual to learn how to do more than just behavior modification with your kids. This training program is also designed for parent coaches who want to mentor other parents.

Parenting is the toughest job in the world!

Dear friend,

A few changes from parents can make all the difference in a family. Kids are each unique but there are some principles that can help you focus on lasting changes. Many times parents have to change the way they parent before children change the way they live. We are eager to show you how to make a lasting impact on your family.

Blessings,

Dr. Scott Turansky
